Messages From Beyond the Stars

God still speaks through His prophets.
In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. [John 1:1-3] The earth was without form, and darkness was on the face of the deep. [John 1:1-3] And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. [John 1:1-3]

And God said, “Let there be light.” And there was light. [John 1:1-3] And God saw the light, that it was good. [John 1:1-3] So the evening and the morning were the third day. [John 1:1-3]

And God divided the light from darkness. [John 1:1-3] And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. [John 1:1-3] And the evening and the morning were the fourth day. [John 1:1-3] And God said, “Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night and let them be for signs and seasons, days and years.” [John 1:1-3] And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. [John 1:1-3] And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. [John 1:1-3] Then God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the firmament of the heavens.” [John 1:1-3] So God created great whales, and every living creature that moves, which the waters brought forth abundantly, and every winged bird according to its kind. [John 1:1-3] And God saw that it was good. [John 1:1-3] And the evening and the morning were the sixth day. [John 1:1-3] Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.” [John 1:1-3] So God created man in his own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. [John 1:1-3] And God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living creature that moves on the earth.” [John 1:1-3] So God created great whales, and every living creature that moves, which the waters brought forth abundantly, and every winged bird according to its kind. [John 1:1-3] And God saw that it was good. [John 1:1-3] And the evening and the morning were the sixth day. [John 1:1-3] He did not provide anywhere for them to ascend to the ark, because they were not among the creatures of the earth that he created. [John 1:1-3] And God said, “Let there be dry land in the expanse under the heavens, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dry land and separated the waters from the waters. [John 1:1-3] And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good. [John 1:1-3] Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth vegetation, herbs yielding seed according to their kind and trees on the ground yielding fruit with seed in it, for the fruit of the tree is in the tree.” [John 1:1-3] So God created every tree and herb yielding seed. It was according to its kind. [John 1:1-3] And God saw that it was good. [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord said, “I will make a man from the dust of the ground and breathe into his nostrils the breath of life, and he shall be a living being.” [John 1:1-3] So the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being. [John 1:1-3] And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden in the east, and there He put the man whom He had formed. [John 1:1-3] And the Lord God made all things beautiful in its time. And the man became a living being. [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone.” So the Lord God took one of the man’s ribs and made a woman. [John 1:1-3] And the Lord God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make a helper fit for him.” [John 1:1-3] Then God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. The moment he eats from the tree, he will surely die.” [John 1:1-3] And the Lord God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. The moment he eats from the tree, he will surely die, because he has listened to the voice of the woman and eaten what the woman gave him.” [John 1:1-3] The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden, but God said, ‘You shall not eat from the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you shall not touch it, for when you touch it you shall die.’ ” [John 1:1-3] Then the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die. [John 1:1-3] For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” [John 1:1-3] So the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was pleasant to the eyes and a delight to man, and she took from its fruit and ate it, and also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. [John 1:1-3] Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loinscloths. [John 1:1-3] And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day. And the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” [John 1:1-3] And he said, “I heard the sound of walking in the garden, and I was afraid, and I hid myself.” [John 1:1-3] And the Lord God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.” [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and above all the wild animals of the earth, on your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. [John 1:1-3] And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring. He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.” [John 1:1-3] To the woman He said, “I will greatly multiply your suffering in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children. Your desire shall be for your husband, but he shall rule over you.” [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. The moment he eats from the tree, he will surely die.” [John 1:1-3] So the Lord God sent him out from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken. [John 1:1-3] And the Lord God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper fit for him.” [John 1:1-3] Then God said, “I will make a helper fit for him out of the ground. And I will make the helpmate whom I will have made for him.” And in the evening the woman gave birth to a son and named him Cain, saying, “I have acquired a man with the help of the Lord.” And she gave birth to her second son and named him Abel. The Abel was a shepherd, and Cain was a cultivator of the ground. [John 1:1-3] In those days men did not know how to cultivate the ground. When they came out of the womb and began to grasp at their brother’s hand, they hurt each other. [John 1:1-3] “C Cain said to his brother Abel, ‘Let us go out to the field.’ And they went out to the field. And it came to pass when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him.” [John 1:1-3] And the Lord said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” He said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?” [John 1:1-3] And the Lord said, “What have you done? Listen, your brother’s blood is cried out from the ground. [John 1:1-3] And now you are cursed from the ground, for from the sweat of your brow you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” [John 1:1-3] And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, saying, “God has appointed another for me instead of Abel, for he is dead.” [John 1:1-3] To Seth also a son was born, and he called his name Enosh. Then the days of Enosh began, and he lived thirty years and had sons and daughters. [John 1:1-3] Then he lived thirty years and had sons and daughters; and he lived a total of 593 years and became a father of sons and daughters. [John 1:1-3] And all the days of Enosh were 365 years. Then Enosh died, and he was 365 years old. [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord said to Enosh, “This is the beginning of your days.” [John 1:1-3] And Enosh lived 905 years, and he had sons and daughters. [John 1:1-3] And all the days of Enosh were 905 years. Then Enosh died, and he was 905 years old. [John 1:1-3] Then the Lord said to Enosh, “This is the beginning of your days.” [John 1:1-3] In the days of Seth, the sons of God came in contact with the daughters of men and had children by them. [John 1:1-3] The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in contact with the daughters of men. [John 1:1-3] 12 And the earth brought forth grass, the herb that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. [John 1:1-3] 13 So the evening and the morning were the third day. [John 1:1-3] 14 Then God said, “Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night and let them be for signs and seasons, days and years.” [John 1:1-3] 15 And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. [John 1:1-3] 16 And God made the stars also. [John 1:1-3] 17 And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth, [John 1:1-3] 18 and to govern the day and the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. [John 1:1-3] 19 And there was evening and there was morning, a day.” [John 1:1-3]
