| <input type="checkbox"/> an old person? | <input type="checkbox"/> a wild animal? |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a criminal? | <input type="checkbox"/> a sibling? |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a pet? | <input type="checkbox"/> a friend? |

2. Do you think this statement is true or false? Why?

People who need spiritual help should be responded to with the same urgency as people who need physical help.

3. Read Proverbs 24:11-12, then answer the following questions.

- Who is this passage directed to?
- What is their problem?
- How might people try to avoid their responsibility?

4. How might a person be led to spiritual death? What activities might contribute toward a person's spiritual destruction?

5. Suppose you wanted to try and rescue some of your friends from dying spiritually. List—in order of effectiveness—the best ways to conduct the rescue, with 1 being the most effective.
