3. How old do you think kids should be before making their own movie viewing decisions?

4. You're sleeping over at your friend's house when your friend's dad comes in the door with a rented R-rated movie. You know you're not supposed to watch the movie (legally, because you're under 17, but also because your parents would kill you), but everyone else wants to see it.

What will you do?

What will you tell your parents later?

What does this say about your friend's dad?

5. What does Philippians 4:8, 9 have to say about movies?
